Genoa, August 22.

LAst Week arrived here the Garland, a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Hubbard Commander, from Port-Mahon, and on the 20th ſailed again for Leghorne on the Cruiſe. It is adviſed from Rome, that the Emperour has appointed Cardinal Schrotenbach to be Viceroy of Naples, till another Perſon is nominated; and that his Imperial Majeſty's Affairs at the Court of Rome, are in the mean time committed to the Care of Cardinal del Giudice. A few Days ago a Neapolitan Felucca took near Savona the Diſpatch-Boat which the Marqueſs de San Phelipe, Miniſter of Spain, ſends from Time to Time to Barcelona. All the Letters were ſeized, and have been ſent under a Guard to the Governour of Milan, to be forwarded to the Court of Vienna. This Bark carried the Diſpatches from Sicily, Rome, and other Parts of Italy. Laſt Week His Britannick Majeſty's Ships Mountague and Charles Galley paſſed by this Place, bound for Villa-Franca, having under their Convoy 15 Tranſports with about 3000 Piemonteſe from Sicily: It is ſuppoſed, that aſſoon as thoſe Men are landed, the Ships will come hither, to take on Board Part of the Body of Imperial Troops commanded by General Bonneval which are deſigned to reinforce the Army in Sicily: Several Tranſports are expected from Naples, and others will be hired here, for the ſame Service; and the Emperour's Miniſters here uſe all Diligence in getting ready the neceſſary Stores of Proviſions.

Berne, Aug. 23. It is adviſed from Coire, that Baron Greuth, his Imperial Majeſty's Envoy with the Three Leagues of the Griſons, having diſcovered that ſome Officers of that Country had undertaken to make Levies among the Griſons, and in ſome of the Popiſh Cantons, for the Service of Spain, had concerted Meaſures with the Heads of that Republick for putting a Stop to ſuch Practices. The Beginning of this Month ſome of the Magiſtrates of the Canton of Schafhuyſen, went to the Village of Wilchingen, to endeavour to perſwade their mutinous Subjects to return to their Duty, in Purſuance of the Counſels given to the ſaid Canton by the late general Dyet; but thoſe Magiſtrates found the Village abandoned, and the Inhabitants fled into the neighbouring Baillage of Sultz belonging to the Houſe of Auſtria. On the 12th the Deputies of the four firſt Cantons arriving at Schafhuyſen, had ſeveral Conferences among themſelves and with the Magiſtrates of that Canton, concerning their ſaid Subjects of Wilchingen: After which thoſe Deputies ſent a Summons to thoſe Peaſants, in the Name of the Helvetick Body, to return home and take the Oath of Fidelity to the Canton of Schafhuyſen; but they refuſed Obedience, unleſs upon certain Terms which are not thought fit to be granted: The Deputies are conſulting however to find out ſome Expedient for an Accommodation. Upon Advice this State received ſome Days ago from the French Ambaſſadour, that he was ready to pay one Year's Penſion to this Canton on the Part of the moſt Chriſtian King, the Chancellour was diſpatched by the Senate to Soluthurn to receive it.

Paris, Sept. 1, N. S. Yeſterday we received the News of the taking of the Town of Meſſina, by a Courier of the Duke of Parma's to his Miniſter here the Abbot Landi. That Town ſurrendred to the Imperialiſts on the 9th of laſt Month, without making any Conditions, ſubmitting intirely to the Emperour's Mercy and Generoſity. The Caſtle Gonzaga was taken on the 7th; the Imperialiſts had likewiſe taken the Tower of the Phare. The Citadel was judged not to be in a Condition to make any long and conſiderable Reſiſtance. A Courier is arrived from the Army commanded by the Marſhal Berwick, with an Account that the Province of Alava has ſubmitted to the Obedience of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

Hanover, Aug. 20, O. S.
